The Raja Laut is a magnificent gaff-topsail schooner built in the tradition of the 19th century Baltic traders. The 100 ft hull is entirely built of iron wood. Behind the classic lines is a modern luxury sailing yacht, equipped with a 300hp engine, watermaker, and the latest in navigation and satellite technology.

The six cabins each have a rich timber interior, en-suite bathrooms, air-conditioning, hot showers and electric toilets. With her beautiful cabins and her recreational equipment such
